

FARMINGTON HILLS, MI – RHP PROPERTIES RAISES MORE THAN $4,500 IN TOYS AND FOOD DONATIONS FOR GOODFELLOWS

The Farmington Hills corporate offices of RHP Properties, Inc. the nation's largest private owner of manufactured home communities, spearheaded its annual holiday gift and food donation program with the local nonprofit organization Farmington Area Goodfellows.

RHP Properties staff donated an equivalent value of $4,590 in toy and food donations this year. "All of us at RHP Properties are honored to assist the Farmington Area Goodfellows in their mission to provide for families during the holiday season," said Ross Partrich, CEO, RHP Properties. "The generosity of our employees shows our commitment to the community, and to this organization which works to ensure no child or senior goes without a Christmas."

The Farmington Area Goodfellows is an all-volunteer charitable organization that has been assisting families for more than 60 years. This year it expects to serve more than 400 children, families and seniors within the Farmington and Farmington Hills communities.

About RHP Properties:

Since 1988, RHP Properties and its affiliated entities have rapidly expanded their real estate holdings as the largest private owner of manufactured home communities in the United States. With approximately $3.6 billion in owned and operated assets in 24 states, and 900 employees, RHP has positioned itself to remain an industry leader.

Media Contacts:

Glenn Oswald or Christine Snyder

(248) 855-6777

goswald@marxlayne.com

csnyder@marxlayne.com

xxx